The Pastor Page

I, Deacon Jack and the entire parish staff at the Church of the Good Shepherd sincerely invite you to every mass, but especially weekend, as we gather for the celebration of the Eucharist to grow in our relationship with the Lord and one another.

THE WORK OF GOD AMONG US

"What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?" Mark 1: 24

Moses was no doubt a great leader and one of the greatest prophets. He frequently challenged God's chosen people to listen to his voice and act on what they heard. We also are God's chosen people who are called to listen to the voice of Jesus, our Good Shepherd and live out his teachings by what we think, say and do no matter what our vocation in life may be. What have to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? That was the question an unclean spirit asked Jesus when he was in the synagogue in Capernaum. Jesus came to have a lot to do with us, for us, and through us. It was the work of God he came to do. Guided by the Holy Spirit this work must now be done by us.

2023 Church Contribution Statements are available to you upon request. On the table in the Gathering Space are blank envelopes. Please write your name and address on it and place it in the basket so that your request can be processed. You can also call the parish office and request your statement. Thank you.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT AND ACTION

The greatest deception, and the deepest source of unhappiness, is the illusion of finding life by excluding God, of finding freedom by excluding moral truths and personal responsibility."
Saint John Paul II

THOUGHTS ON STEWARDSHIP AS A WAY OF LIFE – 4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties.”
1 Corinthians 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word “pray” instead of the word “worry” in the future. Then spend your time praying instead of worrying.

CALL FOR PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL NOMINATIONS

Good Shepherd parish is a precious gift, a blessing to all of us. As a faith community, we come together for worship and service. The Pastoral Parish Council is asking you to join the Council to advise Fr. Jozef on matters concerning the life of the community. Please consider nominating yourself or someone else. Nominations will be accepted until February 12th.

The Nomination Form was emailed to you via Flocknote, and more are available in the Gathering Space, on our website (goodshepherd-sc.org), or from the Parish Office. Completed forms should be placed in the Offertory Baskets or mailed to the Parish Office at: 867 Gray's Wood Blvd., Port Matilda, PA 16870.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

RETURN USED PALMS

Please use the baskets on either side of the Gathering Table to return your used palms from last year. They will be turned into ashes for this year's Ash Wednesday Liturgies.

GATHERING IN THE SPIRIT

We look forward to gathering via Zoom for our next Women's Faith Sharing on Saturday February 3 at 9:00am. We will be reflecting and sharing on Chapter 2: Prisca in Sr. Joan Chittister's book, The Friendship of Women. Come learn about this remarkable woman in the early church and what she can teach us about friendship and our own growth and development. Please have a journal or paper with you as we come together, listening to and learning from one another.

THE FOLLOWING ARTICLE IS THE FOURTH IN A SERIES PROVIDED BY GOOD SHEPHERD'S SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE ON THE TOPIC OF GUN VIOLENCE:

Addressing Gun violence in our culture.

A seven-part series from the G.S. Social Justice committee

Part 4. Guns and Gun Safety- What do you think?

In part 4 of this series, we focus on opinions related to gun violence, gun ownership and laws. A Pew Research study in 2023 reported that approximately 80 % of US adults say gun violence is a big (60%) or moderately big (20%) problem. Parents of K-12 students say they are extremely worried (19%) or very worried (13%) about a shooting happening in their child's school. Yet gun violence remains at or near all-time highs. According to Small Arms Survey, some 393 million guns are owned privately in the US, greater than the US population. In 2021, Pennsylvania ranked fifth among states in registered guns (348,167 guns). Approximately 40% of US adults live in a household with a gun and 32% personally own a gun (Pew Research). Three quarters of gun owners say they own a gun primarily for protection while fewer owners own a gun for hunting (32%), sport shooting (30%) or their job (7%). The country is split in its thinking of guns as increasing safety (49%) versus decreasing safety (49%) by giving too many people access to guns and increasing misuse.

Laws governing firearms are predominantly instituted on the state rather than federal level. Laws vary from state to state and even from city to city within states. Pew Research reports that 50% of US adults favor stricter gun laws with 26% saying laws are about right and 15% favoring less strict gun laws. Differences in opinion concerning gun ownership, significance of and how to address gun violence and gun legislation occur between gun owners and non-owners, males and females, Republicans and Democrats, "conservative" versus "liberal" leaning within their respective political parties, and urban versus suburban versus rural. Whatever your opinions concerning guns, you are not alone. Such divisions have made change to gun laws extremely difficult to enact in many states, including Pennsylvania. Gun legislation addresses age to purchase, type of firearms sold and magazine size allowed, background checks, safe gun storage, and extreme risk protection orders. These legislative initiatives aim to decrease gun violence in our nation. Some of these elements are being actively debated in the Pennsylvania legislature and will be addressed in Part 5 of our series.
